PTA Speaker to Discuss United Nations Jan. 19

"The World's Work for Peace" will be the topic discussed by Mrs. Letty Bailey, International Relations chairman for the California Congress of Parents and Teachers and its Los Angeles Tenth District and sixth vice-president of the same district, and a panel of two well-known educators when they appear before Parent-Teacher Association members and civic leaders in Lomita Thursday night, January 19.

The meeting, sponsored by Orange Street PTA, will be held at Narbonne High School at 7:30 o'clock.

Invitations have been sent to all associations of Gateway, Lomita-San Pedro and Gardena Wilmington PTA Councils to hear Mrs. Bailey, well-known throughout the state as an authority on world affairs, and her two panel members, Mrs. Alexis Jacobauski, chairman of International Relations for Narbonne High School students.

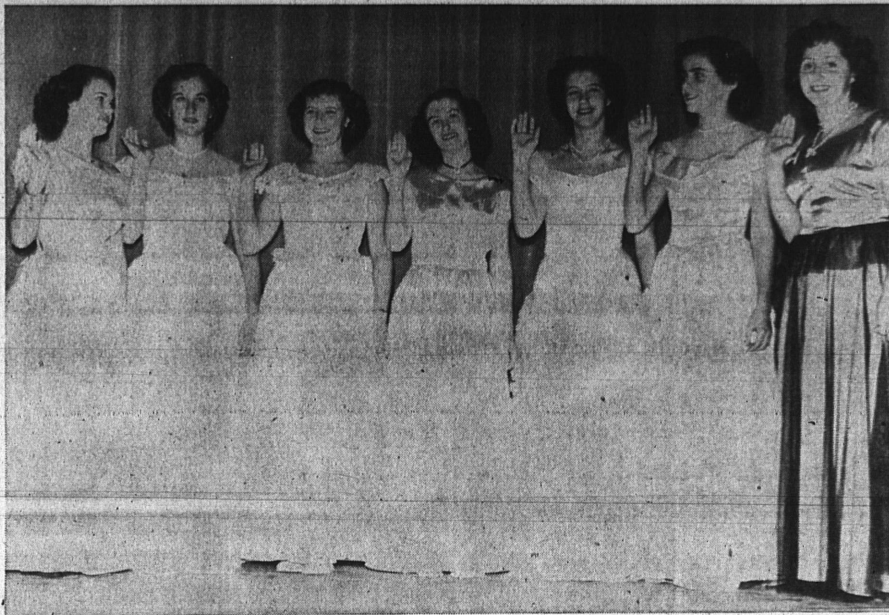

MISS FRANCES POSTEN

SMITH-POSTEN

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Posten of Fresno have announced the engagement of their daughter Frances Marie, to Stuart Giles Smith, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Smith of 2010 Martina avenue.

The future Mrs. Smith was graduated from Roosevelt High School, Fresno, and is attending the Bible Institute of Los Angeles.

Her fiancé, who received his diploma from Torrance High School, also is a student in the Bible Institute. During World War II he served with the United States Navy.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS' INSTALLATION RITES

Torrance Memorial Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., held their installation of officers in the American Legion Clubhouse last Wednesday afternoon.

The national president of the Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Eleanor D. Boyd of Long Beach, was the installing officer, assisted by an installing team from Long Beach Chapter of Gold Star Mothers.

The following elective and appointive officers were installed: Mrs. Lucy Vigil, of Redondo Beach, president; Mrs. Edith Erbe, Gardena, first vice president; Mrs. Jeannette King, Torrance, second vice president; Mrs. Phyllis Hamilton, Lomita, secretary; Mrs. Anne Held, Redondo, treasurer; Mrs. Orpha Wilson, Redondo, chaplain; Mrs. Leona Smith, Torrance, color guard; Mrs. Helen Smith, Torrance, color guard; Mrs. Regina Cunningham, Torrance, color bearer; and Mrs. Mildred Mayall, Redondo, musician.

At the proper moment during the installation procedure, Mallote's "The Lord's Prayer" was sung beautifully and reverently by Mrs. Katherine Stinson of Long Beach. She was accompanied on the piano by the national musician of the Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Frances Davis of Long Beach.

Beautiful corsages of yellow roses were presented to Mrs. Boyd as the installing officer; to Mrs. Esther Burgard of Long Beach as installing sergeant-at-arms; and to Mrs. Vigil as president. Other gifts were graciously received by Mrs. Vigil.

J. G. Caldwell of the Disabled American Veterans was the speaker and his message to the mothers stressed the power to be wielded by a group working together harmoniously.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Regina Cunningham, and Mrs. Cleo Barnett, of Torrance. Appropriately decorated for such

Andrew Post New Arrival at Rudnick's

Mr. and Mrs. Murray L. Rudnick of 1606 Beech avenue are being congratulated upon the birth of their second son, Andrew Post Rudnick, born January 3 in Torrance Memorial Hospital.

The new baby, weighing seven pounds, four ounces at birth, was welcomed home by his three-year-old brother, James Anthony.

The children's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Post of Torrance and Mrs. Anna Rudnick of Los Angeles.

LUTHERANS

Priscilla Circle of First Lutheran Church will resume its activities for the year on Wednesday, January 18.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Morse, 307 1/2 Carson street, and will begin with a noon pot luck luncheon. A business meeting will follow.

ENTERTAINER . . . Dan Lord, puppeteer, one-man showman who has presented his versatile marionettes to packed houses all over Europe, appeared as guest artist for Torrance Woman's Club family and guest night Wednesday evening. Posing with him and his marionettes are Sibbie Oursler and Stephen Kinney, club members' children.

TRAVEL LECTURE, OTHER EVENTS SLATED BY CLUB

Senior and Junior Woman's Club members, their children and guests were delighted with the program presented in the clubhouse Wednesday evening featuring Dan Lord and his puppeteers. The young Los Angeles entertainer took his audience abroad in a splendid performance of song, dance, and novelty numbers.

Dancing to the music of Les Tronier and his orchestra concluded the enjoyable evening. Arrangements for the affair were completed by Mrs. B. T. Whitney, first vice president, and Mrs. Albert Ewalt introduced the program. Assisting were Mrs. Raymond G. Rogers and Miss Esther V. Maxwell. (Continued on Page 15)
